

tals of the houses where live our "home-keeping daughters."

Just here there was an awful crash. I caught the sound of breaking glass and the shrieks of frightened passengers and I knew no more.

DON'T THRUST IDEAS ON OTHERS, SAYS CLUB WOMAN

Mrs. Andrew Coon

This is Mrs. Andrew P. Coon, a well-known Chicago club worker.

She is one of the women who believes thoroughly in suffrage, but who does not believe in thrusting it upon others, unless they are ready to receive it.

When the question of bringing the suffrage amendment before the last General Federation of Women's Clubs came up, Mrs. Coon thought it should not be introduced, fearing some members were not yet converted to it.

Mrs. Coon thinks the spread of a principle must be effected through teaching carefully and slowly.

HASHED BROWN POTATOES WITH GREEN PEPPERS

Peel and slice three cupfuls of cold boiled potatoes. Cut six slices of bacon into bits, place in skillet and fry a golden brown, being careful not to scorch the fat. Have fat hot, put in potatoes, stir until well mixed, but not broken. Put over slow fire and allow to brown nicely. Add bacon bits and three tablespoonfuls of chopped sweet green peppers. Heat up thoroughly and serve.

POUND CAKE

Cream 1 pound of butter with 1 pound of sugar, 1 pound of eggs. Beat yolks of eggs until lemon color, add to butter and sugar and beat thoroughly. Add $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon of grated nutmeg and 1 tablespoon of lemon juice. Have whites of eggs beaten to stiff dry froth. Weigh 1 pound of flour. Add to butter and sugar a little at a time, alternating with the beaten white of the eggs, beating lightly. The batter should be very stiff. Bake in steady oven an hour.

BY AND ABOUT WOMEN
